Effect Was Magical.

Mt. Palaski, Itl., Mar. 25, 1901. I wish to testify to the excellent results obtained through the use of your Baxter's Mandrake Bitters. I suffered for years with indigestion, sick headache and palpitation of the heart. I had tried different remedies, but received very little relief. I tried Baxter's Mandrake Bitters and the effect was magical. I used only two boxes of the tablets, and have had no sto nach trouble in over a year.

WASHINGTON COUNTY COURT.

Jack Powers was arraigned Wednesday,

Jack Powers was arraigned Wednesday. He pleaded not guilty to the charge of selling, keeping and maintaining a nuisance and was remanded to jail. His case will probably be tried at the present term of county court.

When court came in Wednesday afternoon the State's attorney asked leave to amend the indictment in the case of State against Donovan, so that the allegations should compare with the proofs on certain points. This request was based on section 1912, Vermont Statutes. Counsel for respondent objected. The court ordered the State's attorney to so amend the indictment to make it compare with the proofs in respect of it compare with the proofs in respect of those which are at variance. Exceptions by respondent.

FIRST DIVIDEND.

The depositors in the defunct Farmers National bank of Vergennes have received their first dividend of twenty-five per cent Receiver J. T. Sullivan is reported to be having good success in collecting accounts due the bank. Among the assets of the bank were many notes which were considered to be worthless that have been paid or are now being paid. Mr. Sullivan is allowing those who owe the bank to liquid ate their indebtodness by easy payments so that it is not hard for them to meet their obligations.

Quite a large per cent of the assessment on the stock has been collected by Receiver Sullivan. Almost $50,000 of the $60,000 assessment has either been paid or arrangements made for its payment. This is good news to the depositors who will receive quite if not all due them if Mr. Sullivan is equally successful in collecting the balance. It is said the only discovery made by Frank R. McCormick and F. S. Platt in going over the accounts of Lieut.-Gov. Allen is that Mr. Allen's indebtedness to the bank is not as much as was at first reported.
